Foreword

It seems as if it were only yesterday that the Class of 1962 entered Moon High School as the "little seventh graders." It was a totally new world to us—new friends, new modern school, and a new routine. Things changed slightly in the eighth grade. Now we were not the youngest, and there was present just a little feeling of superiority, and that being a senior was not so far away after all. Then we entered the ninth grade, there attaining the title of Freshmen, and being introduced to the social life of clubs and dances. As sophomores we were classified as senior high school students, and as juniors one step away from the ultimate–the status of a senior.

And now the wish has come true, and we are able to look back on that year of 1956 and those that followed with mixed emotions: the feeling of belonging and the feeling of isolation, that of triumph and disappointment. To a few classmates it was a long, long journey, but to the majority of the class, the destination was reached by a jet airplane, and the years with all activity flew by all too quickly to be fondly remembered.

So to help us recall all those moments in the years to come, we present this volume of the Flame.

Carol—
To a swell girl I met this year. Remember the nuts in gym &
that "graceful" dance
we did with dumbells!

"Education is making men."
Guiterman

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Mr. Guiterman's above statement is so true, for it seems that the more education a human being procures during his life, the more "human" he becomes. The spiritual education enlightens man's horizons beyond comprehension; the practical aids the man in daily living; and the formal education informs man of deeds done to better his life, and opens the door of knowledge to better his mind.

Our community has elected our schoolboard to carry on their shoulders the responsibility of issuing the formal teachings, and through this body is selected the administration, and, of course, the faculty.

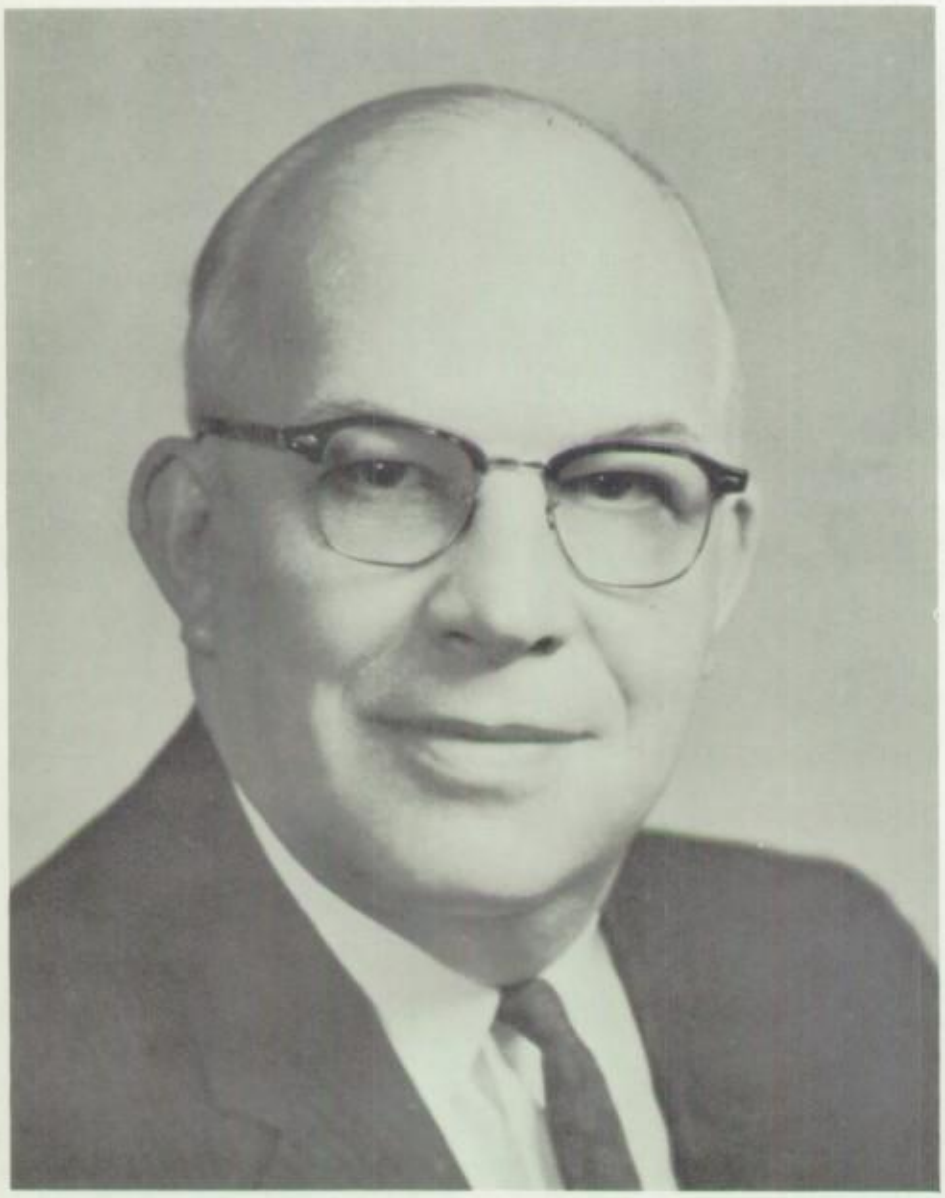
These are truly thankless jobs, for their value, it is sad to say, will not be realized until we, the Senior Class, grow older.

But to these fine human beings we want you to know, we will never forget these valuable years.

"The foundation of every state is the education of its youth."

Diogenes

CHIEF ADMINISTRATORS



Mr. J. H. Brooks

Mr. Joseph Siegman

In the position as Supervising Principal, Mr. J. H. Brooks is not seen as frequently as the classroom teacher; nevertheless, his devoted and constant guidance is never lacking.

The thirty-one years of service are a reminder of his dedication, and it is our wish that the underclassmen at Moon High School will know and admire him as does the Class of 1962.

Working closely with Mr. Brooks is Mr. Joseph Siegman, whose brisk and efficient performance of his duties is ever appreciated. Any student who held a responsible office in the school and was confronted with financial difficulties is familiar with this administrator, for he is combination treasurer, bursar, and accountant of the high school's funds.

To both of these men, whose roles are as teacher and administrator, we offer our gratitude.

"He is wise who can instruct us and assist us in the business of daily virtuous living"

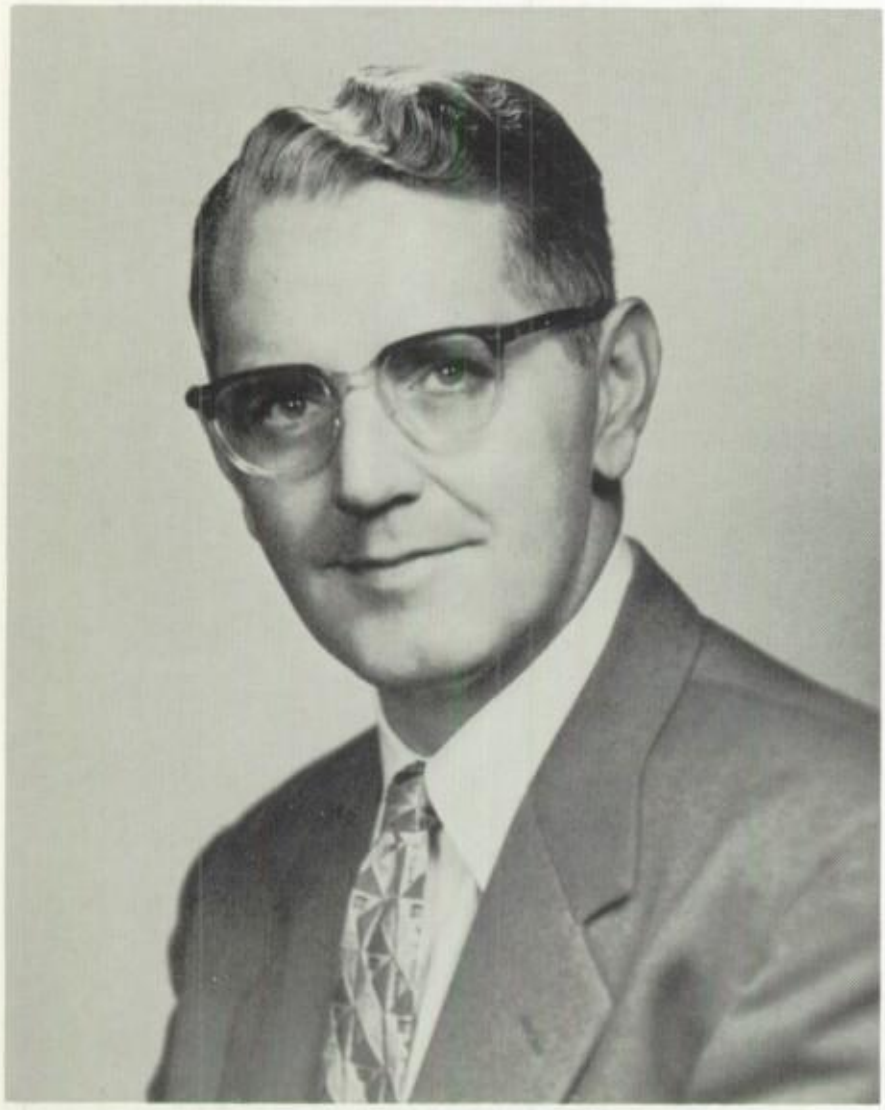
Carlyle

High School Principals



Mr. James Crawford

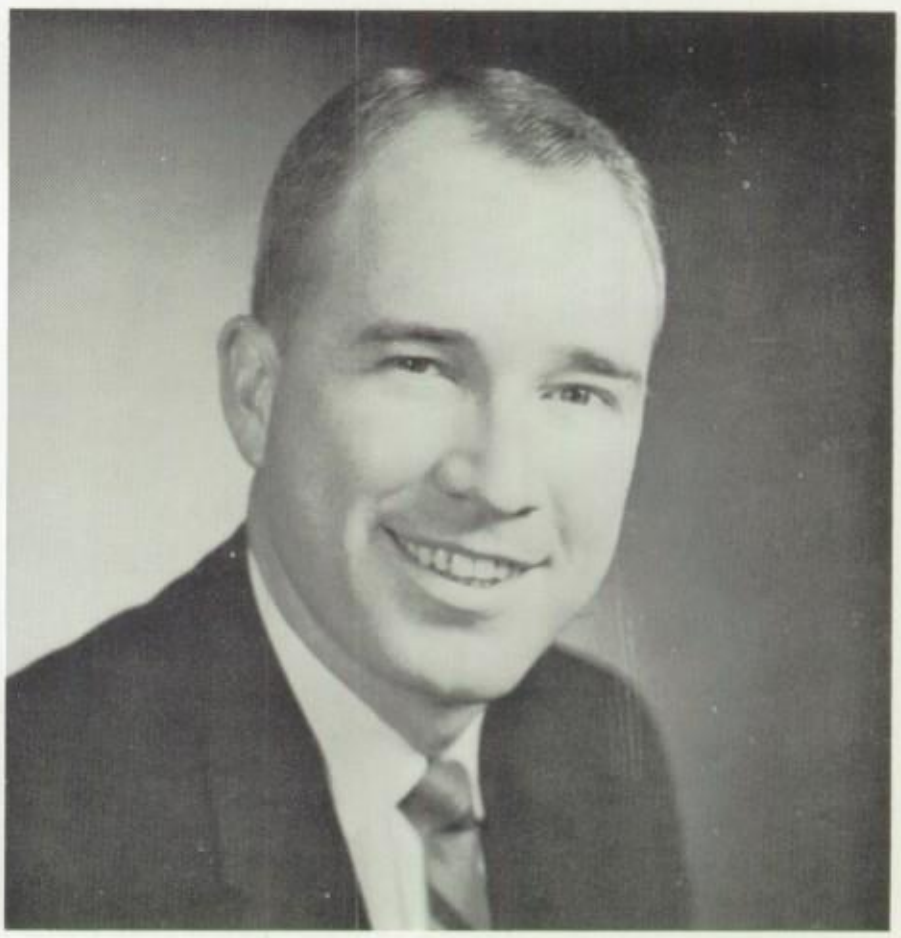
The men pictured on this page also hold administrative positions, doing their jobs with skill and dedication.

Mr. James Crawford, High School principal, has the never ending task of making Moon a better educational institution in which the community may educate their youth.

Mr. F. A. McCormack, our Assistant Principal, and Mr. Robert Sharps, who holds the identical office in the Carnot Elementary building for the seventh grade, exercise their knowledge and talents in helping Moon students with their many, many problems.

To these persons, also, do we offer our gratitude.

Mr. F. A. McCormack



Mr. Robert Sharps

Round the School

Exchange Students at Moon

Moon High School's principal, Mr. James R. Crawford, in September of this year, propelled an idea into motion. To certain colleges and high schools, this plan was already in practice, but to our school it was in its challenging and critical stage of beginning—to bring two South American students to Moon. Making this idea a reality, the student council, under the guidance of Mr. Jack Miller and leadership of Jim McCormack, contributed an undiminished amount of time and energy.

Thus on this division page, introducing activities and honors, are seen the results of their efforts. What more appropriate place can there be to introduce our new students than the section that epitomizes high school social life!

Extracurricular activity, a pleasant change in the hectic daily routine, is the one factor that most enhances the final years of high school.

First coming to mind to the student are the sports: fall, football; winter, basketball; spring, track and golf. Next are the clubs, numerous ones, each offering a particular service: Key Club, Caterers Club, F.T.A., Spanish and Latin Club, Junior Red Cross, Science Club, and many others, all equally fine. The high school is certainly not lacking in music. We have our bands and choruses that have provided many a pleasing performance to the members of our school. We also are able to pay tribute for outstanding accomplishments by means of the Honor Society, and other awards to individuals.

And too, we possess our student government—the court and the council. We, the class of '62, are very proud of the latter organization, for it was through their untiring effort that we have with us the two outstanding individuals featured on these pages, our foreign exchange students Maria Louisa Tama, and George Arosemena.

We would like to present, in the following pages, those people who have participated and made Moon a finer school.

In the 1961 varsity football season many memorable happenings occurred. Will anyone ever forget the controversial lime burns inflicted to our team in its opening game against Hopewell? Behind 6-0 at the half, Coach Gracey and school officials refused to bring the team out onto the field for the second half because of the lime burns sustained by the boys. Nevertheless, a WPIAL rules committee ruled a forfeit in Hopewell's favor.

After its impressive victory over Carnegie, the team seemingly could not become untracked through the rest of the rough schedule. Yet, the losing season seemed to be worth all of its hardships as our boys rebounded to a smashing 32-7 victory over arch rival Coraopolis.

Generally, it is quite difficult for the coaches, teams, and student body to struggle through such a losing season. But the boys provided their fans with many thrills and exciting moments as their effort was constantly one hundred per-cent.

Individual honors went to Sonny Ploy, tackle, Gary Eberle, tackle, and John Kinlock, guard. These boys were selected to the Big Ten All-Star Team. John Kinlock received an honorable mention on the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette All-WPIAL Team.

All-State Tackle

EBERLE NAMED TO BIG 33 TEAM

One of Moon's football players has received word that he has received the highest award any football player in the state of Pennsylvania can receive. Gary Eberle, a senior tackle, was notified that he has been named to a berth on the state's Big 33 Team.

Sportswriters from all the state's newspapers each year choose 66 players for this honor, 33 from the west and 33 from the east.

Next August the two teams will play an exhibition game in Hershey, Pa.

Gary is the first Moon footballer to be thus honored, and he is the only in the Big 10 to be named to the Big 33.

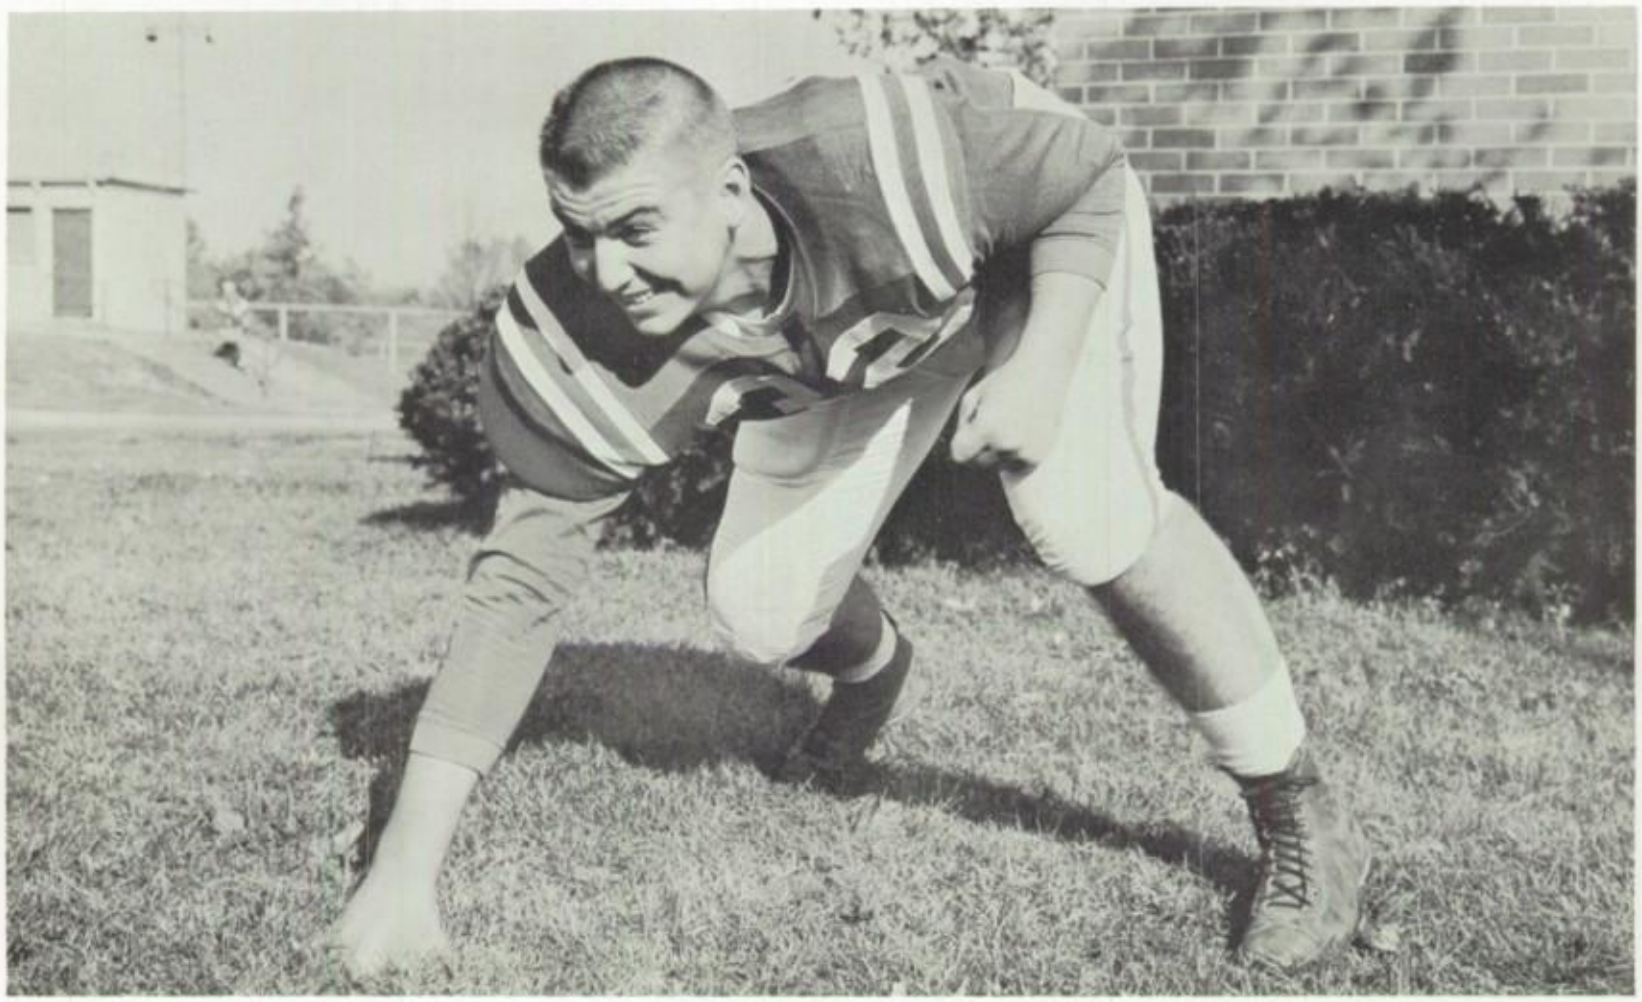
Many WPIALI Stars Named For Team

HARRISBURG, Pa. Dec. 9 (UPI)—The sixth annual Big 33 All-State team of Pennsylvania schoolboy football players was named today.

The Big 33:

Tackles: John Carber, Neshaminy; Bill Wischnewski, Wilkes-Barre Meyers; Norm Snowberger, Chambersburg; Pete de Santis, Butler; Gary Eberle, Moon Twp.; Bill Viney, Pittsburgh North Catholic.



Gary Eberle, Moon High School's most outstanding football player in many years, brought much glory to his school. The sought after Eberle first honored us with his selection to the all WPIAL All-Star team first string. Gary then was chosen to participate in the annual "Big 33" all-star game in Hershey, Pennsylvania. This Pennsylvanian dream team is made up of the thirty-three best high school players in the state of Pennsylvania. A special "thanks" and congratulations go to Gary Eberle, a truly great product of Moon High.

Basketball

Much like the football season, the basketball season cannot be considered an outstanding success if we must judge only by the won and lost columns. If success can be measured by team spirit and the means by which the game is played, Moon High stands second to none. The 10-14 won-lost record does not justify the spirit and zeal displayed by Mr. Fryz's boys in every game. After starting off the season poorly, our boys evened their exhibition record at 5-5.

In section play, our team never quit hustling and gave the better teams in the section some close scares. Relying on speed and agility rather than muscle and height, Coach Fryz's charges lost many close ones to such standout teams as Stowe, section champions, McKees Rocks, Shaler and Montour. Much credit must be given to our senior players who gave prodigiously to their school through basketball; Chuck Herbert, Bill Sacco, Ted Brooks, Martin Ploy, Bill McCormick, Ken Siegman, Terry Griffith, and Paul Connolly.

It was a season to be remembered.

Glory on the Court

Track

Mr. Merges once again came through with an extremely successful varsity track season. Since the advent of track at Moon High in 1955, Mr. Merges has produced winning season after winning season. An examination of the 1961 season record will show our popular coach's success.

Although losing many fine competitors from the 1960 team, our boys again jelled into a fine working organization. These returning boys bettered many of the established records and amassed more than 90 points in more than one meet. Tom Bedick, 1961's captain, was the standout of the team. Tom smashed school records in the half mile, and high hurdles along with running in one of the relay teams.

Another successful season in 1962 is predicted for our cindermen. Returning standouts include Captain Ward Goodnight, Bill McCormick, Richard Drake, John Kinlock, Dale Hunter, and Milford Ankrom.

Good luck and continued success goes to the 1962 track team and its outstanding coach, Mr. Merges.

The 1961 Moon Tiger baseball season was marked with many defeats, as the fighting Tiger team could not get into the winning column with any consistency. As the record illustrates, the season was up and down.

During the spring of the 1961 baseball season, the weatherman was quite uncooperative. Even though the varsity was able to play most of its scheduled games, there were not very many days on which they could practice. This hindrance could tell of the story behind a losing season.

Another chapter in the story could be traced to the batting slumps and fielding lapses undergone by our players throughout most of the games. Still, many enjoyable memories will be remembered by each member of the team—the rash of broken bats, Mr. Lebec's yelling and Brad's walks in the Upper St. Clair game.

All in all, the season was a disappointment, but we can still look forward through means of the old adage, "wait until next year."

Golf

Among the sports at Moon High School, perhaps the golf team has the least number of participants. There can only be five members playing during any one match, and the players scoring ability will determine what position he may play.

The matches are held every Tuesday and Friday of each week, beginning in April and ending in May. The other days of the week, Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday, are devoted to practice.

Mr. Stull is the golf team's coach and has done a fine job against his very tough competitors. This year he will welcome back four veterans: Mark Eger, and Rich Cummiskey, seniors; Dave Altenburg, a junior; and Tom Vernocy, a sophomore. With these four and the others that come out, Mr. Stull will try to build a victorious team.

Mr. Stull–Golf is a relaxing sport.

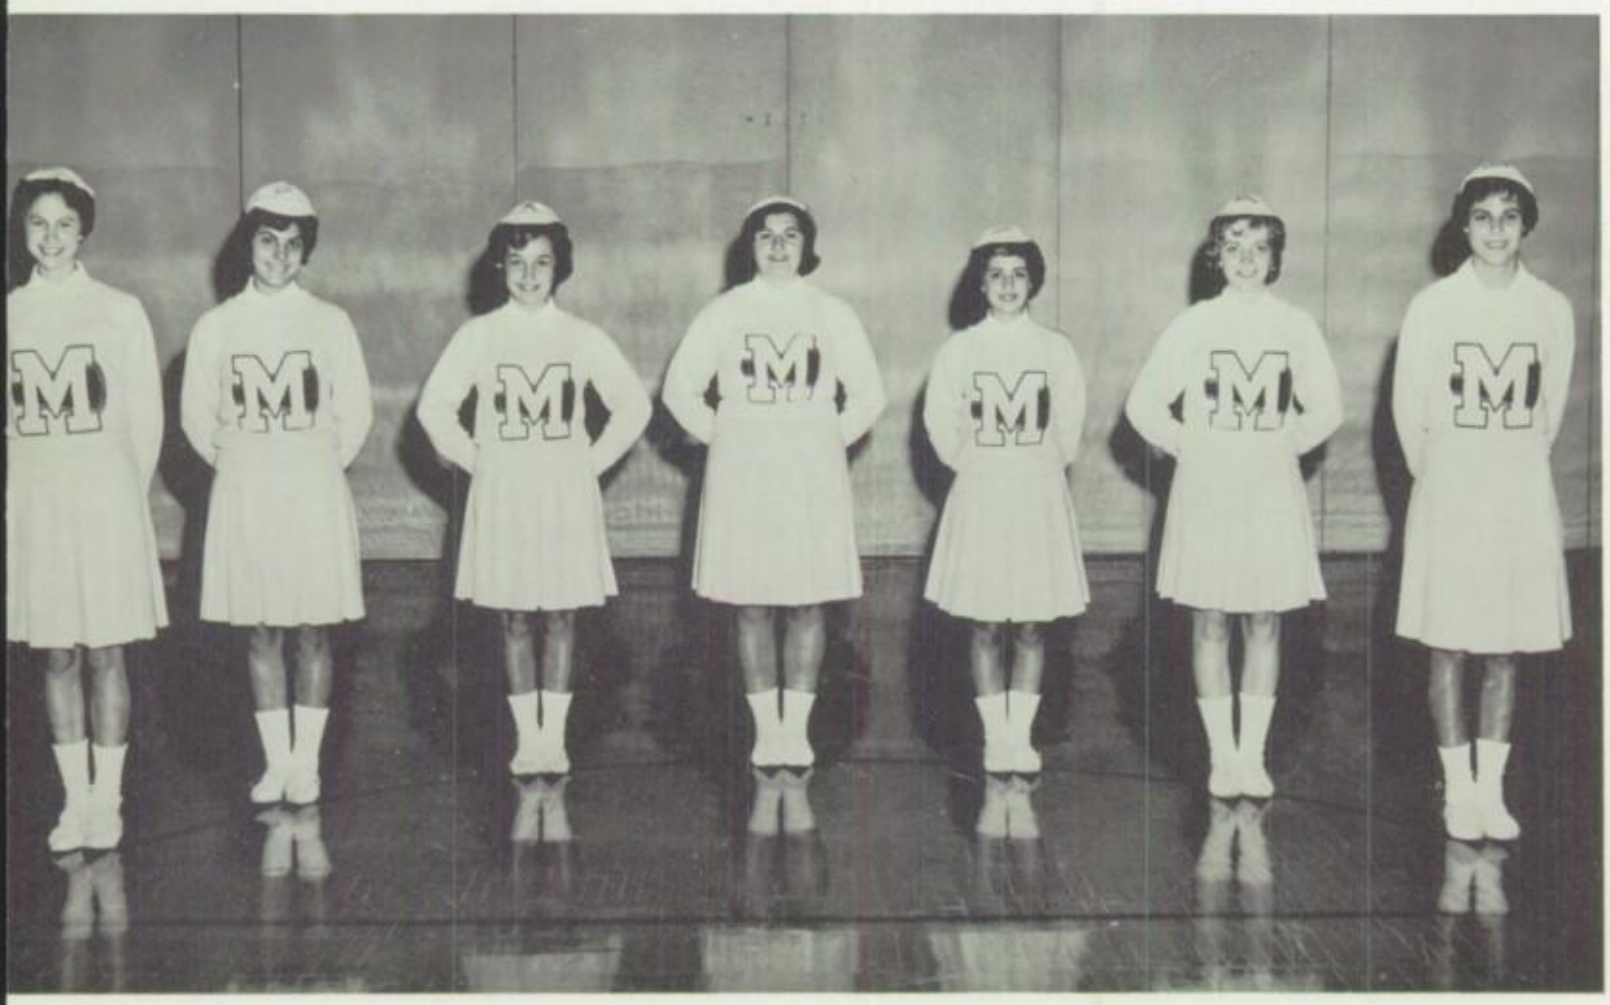
JUNIOR VARSITY—B. Bostrom, A. Tyler, A. Siegman, L. Taylor, J. Campbell, C. Skopinski, S. Gerlach.

Cheering

The cheerleaders, under the excellent direction of Mrs. Olga Kosanovich, are divided into three different groups: the Senior High group, the Junior Varsity group, and the Junior High group. Their ambitions and abilities are well shown at the pep assemblies and games, making signs, leaping through the air, and leading cheers for the promotion of school spirit at Moon High.

JUNIOR HIGH—S. Skopinski, Glatz, M. McElhaney, B. Bradford, A. Halusic, C. Altenberg, K. Rody, B. Runyon.



S. Bates, J. DiMeo, V. Deramo, J. Gastner, L. Bell, S. Johnston, K. Venanzio.

Senior National Honor Society

The students on this page are the members of the most revered organization of Moon High School, the National Honor Society. These individuals were chosen for their excellence in service, leadership, scholarship, and character.

The ceremony for the purpose of inducting new members commenced with a solemn candle lighted procession by the senior members (those in robes), and it was their honor to "tap" those newly elected.

From the stage the former sighted the deserving students, descended the steps, and presented them with their membership card and a hearty hand shake.

Junior National Honor Society

Row 1: R. Bradford, R. Harper, F. Randall, D. Vogel, K. King, D. Northrup, E. Hanley, B. Goss, L. Foster, M. Forney, J. Fitzpatrick, C. Cuervo, E. Clark, J. Brown. Row 2: R. Trimber, D. Goss, S. Dothwaite, K. Kohlhaos, P. McLaughlin, J. McHaffie, T. Fenton, R. Hogue, L. Telap.

Honored at the Junior National Honor assembly were 28 freshmen and 14 eighth graders.

Chosen on the basis of teacher rating, these students were deemed to be tops in leadership, service to Moon, scholarship, and character.

It is our hope that these individuals will retain and enhance all those traits that made them worthy of membership.

Heinlein, J. Leoni, Mr. Miller, M. Bajek.

Moon's student council is one of the most active and powerful organizations in the school. Here democracy prevails, and the elected members are able to voice freely the criticisms and praises of their home away from home. By its own initiative the council has made possible the two foreign exchange students, the senior lounge, and numerous other admirable projects. This is a group of which we may certainly be most proud.

MacLean, Drake, Johnston, McCormick, Kinlock, Bosetti. Not pictured: Dan Kennedy.

The student court is the judicial branch of our student government. These members too are elected by secret ballot, and justly try those classmates who violate the school laws. In the field of discipline the court occupies a major position. To these individuals we extend our thanks.

Special Recognition

Jo Ann Caponecchi Award

In memory of JoAnn Caponecchi, the class of 1953 established this award, given to a sophomore boy and girl with the most citizenship points in their junior high years. The award this year went to Jane Baier and Harvey Gillis.

Carol,
Best wishes to the girl who saved me occasionally in Biology. I'm not sure → nostrum,
D/Orv

Good Citizen Award

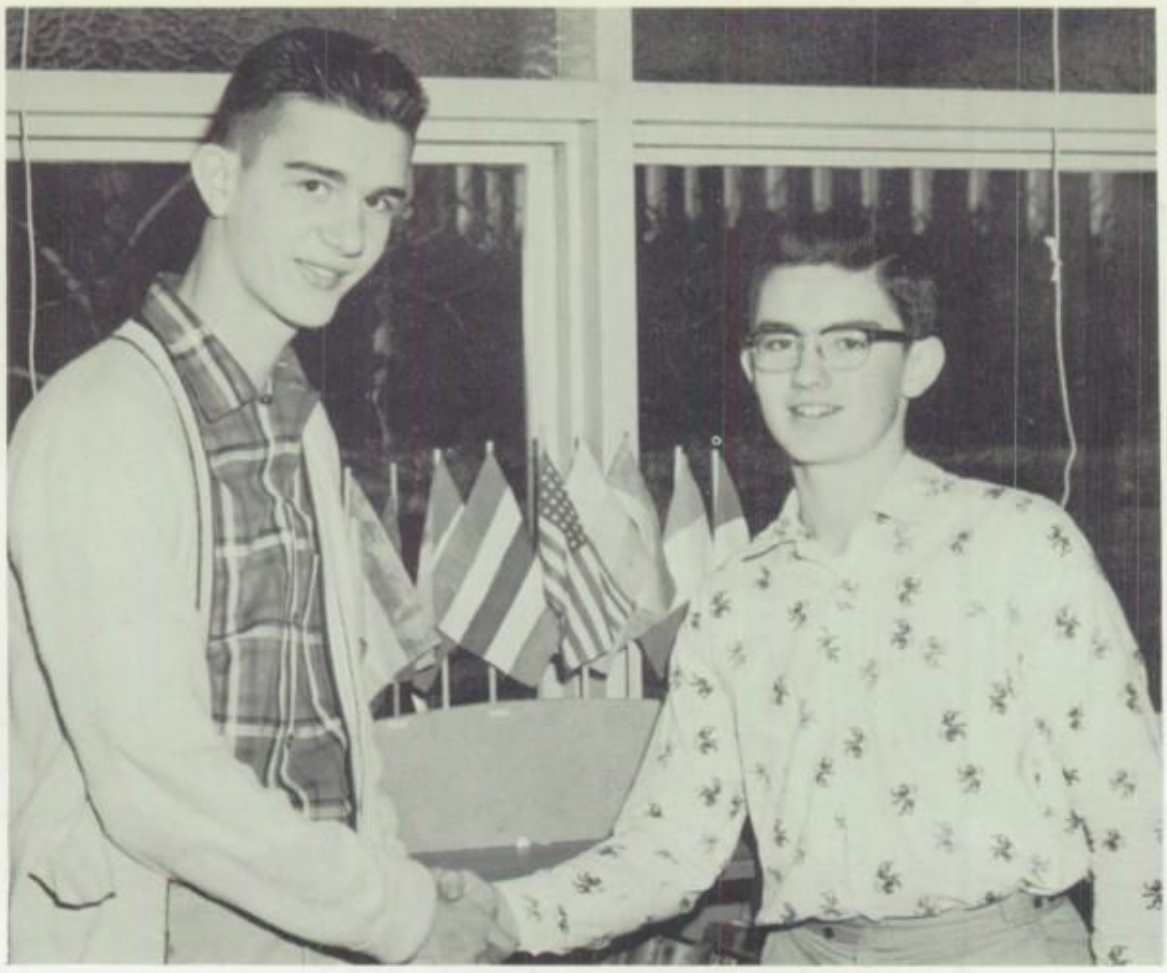
The faculty and senior class each year choose a senior girl with the qualities of dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. Susan Witt was chosen Good Citizen of the Class of 1962. The award is sponsored by the Jacob Ferree Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

John Tilly Award

The John Tilly Award is presented each year by the class of 1957 to the most promising sophomore football player. Last year's football team chose John Kinlock for the award.

Homemaker Award

Meridel Berola received the title of homemaking student from the class of 1962. Each year a senior girl with the best ability and potential, selected by means of a test, is given the Betty Crocker Homemaking Award.



Student Exchange Representatives

Brad Billetdeaux

The two students who have been chosen to represent our school in South America are George Lauderbaugh and Brad Billetdeaux. After extensive testing and questioning these two students were chosen to go to school in one of the countries of South America for three months during the summer.

Science Fair Winners

Row 1: K. Siegman, R. Ackerman, B. Billetdeaux, C. Junge, M. Cerankowski, A. Hutchinson.
Row 2: G. Kennedy, W. Sacco, C. Herbert, R. Karl, G. Lauderbaugh, C. Sirok, L. Allshouse, V. Pfoff, K. Andreyev, J. Ralston.

These deserving students were the winners of the Second Annual Moon High School Science Fair Projects and were entered in the fields of General Science, Biology, Chemistry, and Physics. In each field, three winners were chosen by capable judges from the surrounding area.

K. Johnson, P. Lucci.

Student Television Participants

Representing Moon High School on one of the various bandstand programs were Meridel Berola and James McCormack.

Both students were interviewed on the program while various other students danced.

Two other students, Karen Johnson and Paul Lucci, made a series of television programs for KDKA-TV. The program consisted of Paul and Karen visiting various colleges with interviews with students and faculty of the colleges.

M. Berola, J. McCormack.

Girls of the Month

For their ability and scholastic achievement in the field of business, Patti Paton and Lois Bell were chosen Girls of the Month. The Business and Professional Women's Club of Coraopolis honored these two girls who were chosen by the commercial department.

Exceptionally Able Youth

Moon Beams is again this year under the sponsorship of Mr. Rudolf Spik. The staff was chosen at the beginning of the school year, with the position of managing editor held by Mark Eger, a senior; associate editors are Karen Kearney and Ginny Sirocky; the news editor is a junior, Ralph Ackerman; feature editor is Vaughn Duhamel; and sports editor is George Lauderbaugh. In general, it has been the purpose of the staff to have a well-constructed and informative newspaper. They certainly have done so.

Record and Bulletin Reporters

Row 1: K. Woods, A. Santucci, J. Litterini, C. Mollenauer, S. Bates. Row 2: P. Raley, M. Peterson, J. Ralston, J. Glass, B. Scott, M. DeMasso, M. Berola, F. Sullivan.

1962 Flame Staff

To complete the Flame was again, like other years, a long hard grind. The combined efforts of the photographers, editors, typists, and our sponsor, Mr. Sliwiak, however, was enough to overcome this annual "unsurmountable" task and produce what the Flame staff feels is the best book yet. Because of their hard work from August until March, the Class of 1962 has a storehouse of memories that will enable them to relive their senior year as easily and as many times as they open the Flame.

Typists: J. Mazurek, S. Russell.

K. Ayers, J. Witthee, Mr. Sliwiak, Flame Sponsor; V. Neideritter.

Crime Photographer

S. Witt, M. Moon, J. Ralston, S. Stamp, D. Conklin, C. Herbert, M. Berola, R. Ballard, J. McCormack, R. Dilisio, F. Sullivan, G. Kennedy, K. Kearney.

Mrs. Roth shining the faces of the stars.

Mr. Cady, director of the successful senior play, Crime Photographer, proudly gazes upon the cast that made him famous. James McCormack was the clever and shrewd Casey; his sidekick was played by Meridel Berola. Of course no one will forget the bellowing, boisterous Captain Logan portrayed by Fred Sullivan, and the charming Glory Powdrell enacted by Susan Stamp.

It played a one night stand at Moon High, and received the critics praise. It is reported the cast worked for weeks preparing for the opening night. Rehearsals were held daily and everyone put forth his best effort.

Crime Photographer was the epitome of the thrilling mystery adventure, and one that will never be forgotten by the Class of '62.

Senior Review

The Junior Prom

One of the biggest events of our high school life occurred on Friday, May 5, 1961—our Junior-Senior Prom! Early in the year we chose the theme "Hawaiian Splendor," and then our preparations began. Murals had to be painted, dance cards printed and invitations sent. We divided into committees and set to work. We met on countless Saturday afternoons, but the majority of it had to be left for the last two days.

However, all of our troubles were rewarded. The decorations were just what one might expect from the theme. A Hawaiian village with small grass huts and tall palm trees, lined one wall. A beautiful sunset appeared on the other. A touch of novelty was added by building a genuine grass hut to accommodate the observation platform where our parents stood with approval.

Finally, it was Friday night and as we stepped into the lobby, we found ourselves on the deck of an ocean liner ready to take us to imaginary Hawaii. As we departed from the ship, each girl received a live Vanda orchid, which had been flown in from Hawaii, as a symbol of "Aloha" to each guest. We danced to the music of Jack Purcell and his orchestra until the magic evening was over.

Thinking back, it is hard to decide which had been the most fun, the evening itself or the hours we spent beforehand. Probably, it was a mixture of both; nevertheless, we will never forget our "Hawaiian Splendor."

May is the month of spring, flowers, sunshine, and May Day. As their queen, Moon's student body elected Patricia Kinchen, and as Lord, John Mucha. Chosen to represent the student body as Alma Mater was Charlotte Bosetti. The participants presented to the queen and her court scenes that might be encountered on a world tour. But since April showers felt a need to fall yet in May, this imaginary excursion was taken in the comfort and shelter of the gymnasium.

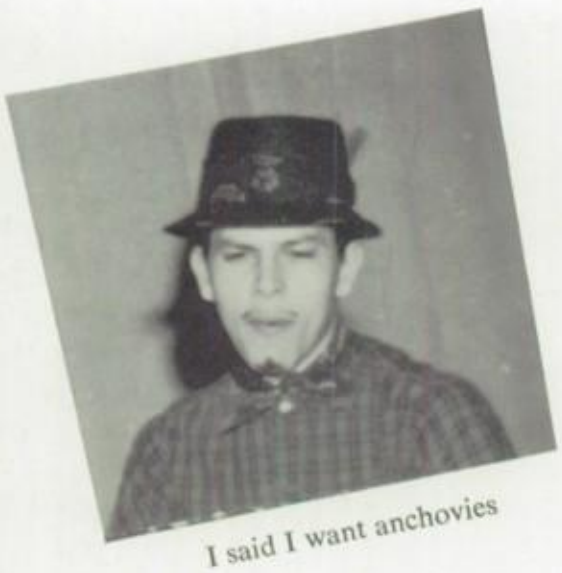
Look at the Birdie



I said I want anchovies

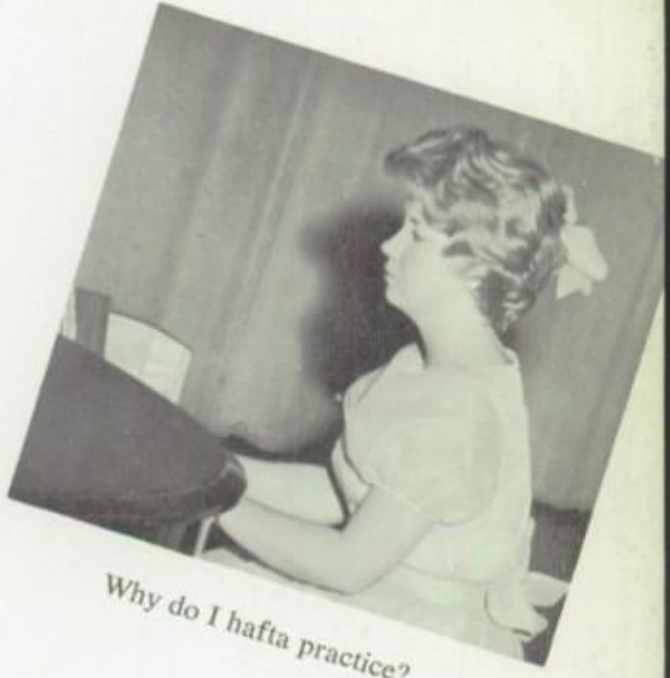
Which way did he go?

Open wide and let's have a look at those teeth

Get that line straight

I want my mommie!

Momma and Poppa



Why do I hafta practice?

The future looks dark.

NEW
"SEATING ARRANGEMENT"

FOR
MILES

—another important example of Rockwell-Standard progress in design and development

Here is the newest Rockwell-Standard development in passenger seats—a development so markedly advanced that it is better described as an "arrangement for seating" rather than by the common term. For ingenious design makes it "tailor itself" to the comfort requirements of the passenger.

Where your present car seat may have as many as 450 parts and requires special decorative trim to bring it in keeping with the car's interior, the one shown above has less than 60 components – all moulded in plastic foam. And the main frame serves its support function as it contributes to modern interior beauty.

To the automobile manufacturer this can mean lighter weight, faster, easier assembly, lower cost. To the buyer it means greater comfort – better seat adjustment, better contour support without bulk, better air flow.

This newest advance in car seating is another important contribution from Rockwell-Standard to the fields it serves so well – transportation, construction, agriculture, petroleum, general industry and government.

22 U.S. plants of Rockwell-Standard Corporation manufacture these famous products • TIMKEN-DETROIT® AXLES • HYDRA-DRIVE® TRANSMISSIONS • GARY® GRATING • BLOOD BROTHERS® UNIVERSAL JOINTS • BOSSERT® STAMPINGS • AERO COMMANDER® AIRCRAFT • AIR-MAZE® FILTERS • KERRIGAN® LIGHTING STANDARDS. Plus these other Rockwell-Standard® products: AUTOMOTIVE BUMPERS • AUTOMOTIVE SEATING LEAF AND COIL SPRINGS • BRAKES • FORGINGS

The story of Rockwell-Standard is interesting. Send for illustrated booklet about the corporation and its many products.
